

PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S NETWORK PRESENTS

“Making the Career Move to Nonprofit.”

With Paula Akana...

On Thursday, September 23, 2021, the Professional Women's Network will welcome Paula Akana, the Executive Director of The Friends of Iolani Palace. Paula Akana, as the keynote speaker at our Zoom Lunch Break, will be sharing her journey as one of Hawaii's most recognizable TV journalists to the nonprofit position she holds today.

Paula is a graduate of Kamehameha Schools and the University of Hawaii at Manoa where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism. Over the years, Paula has served with a number of local nonprofit organizations, including the Board of Directors for YMCA Metro Honolulu and Ma'o Farms. She is a member of the Hawaiian Civic Club of Honolulu. For many years, she also volunteered with the Polynesian Voyaging Society, working on education initiatives, and fundraising efforts.

Come to the Zoom meeting on Thursday, September 23 from 11:30 – 1:30 p.m. Invite a guest. Meet Paula Akana. Learn how after 30 plus years as a broadcast journalist for KITV Island News, she transitioned to the nonprofit arena.

Please sign in between 11:30 and noon.

RSVP now to CarolPWN@Gmail.com

We'll send you the Link to the meeting.

Date:

Thursday,
September 23, 2021

Location:

ZOOM Online

FREE!

Program:

11:30 a.m. — 1:30 p.m.

Guest Speaker:

Paula Akana

Professional Women's Network

Find us at: PWNHAWAII.ORG

Promote your business! Ask about our special booths, door prize and sponsorship opportunities for our in-person lunches.