

Professional Women's Network presents "Sharpening Your Leadership Skills"

On Thursday, September 22, 2022, the Professional Women's Network will welcome Pam Chambers, a public speaking coach, who will present about "Sharpening Your Leadership Skills."

Pam Chambers has been educating and entertaining Hawaii audiences since 1985. She offers programs on presentation skills, business etiquette, networking, customer service, coaching skills, and more. Pam is known for her practical tips and her "wise and cheerful lessons." She is the author of ten books.

At our September networking lunch, Pam will teach about "learning to love the struggle", "how to respond to feedback", as well as the "Why" behind the "What."
