

Bio of David Livingston

Introduction:

David is a Husband, Financial Advisor, Rotarian, & Leader, and a Volunteer and Champion of raising funds for the YMCA, the United Way, the Coalition for A Drug Free Hawaii, and the Navy League to name a few.

The following is only scratching the surface. See his full bio with the link at the bottom.

Awards, Careers, Leadership:

- 1970-1994: YMCA Director in California and Hawaii
- 1994: Founder of TriMark of Hawaii, Inc., a Direct Mail Advertising Company that also deals with fundraising, fund development, and photography
- 1999: Recruited by Edward Jones as a Financial Advisor
- 1999-2009: Neighborhood Board in Hawaii Kai
- 2001: Recruited to teach Sales and Marketing Classes at the Hawaii Pacific University (Adjunct Professor until 2003)
- 2001: Began Things Worth Saving, a weekly e-mail broadcast to 2000 business leaders in Hawaii
- 2011: Named one of Hawaii's 2011 Wealth Managers who scored highest in Overall Customer satisfaction in Honolulu Magazine
- 2012-2014: President of the United States Navy League Honolulu Council
- 2013-2020: Named as a Five Star Wealth Manager with 100% score on Client Satisfaction
- 1965-present: Avid photographer
- Twice in 41 years as a Rotarian, David was honored as the Rotarian of the Year
- Honored with the Lex Brodie Above and Beyond Award

Community Service:

David is an expert fundraiser and involved with Rotary (Past President twice and Assistant Governor four times) and working with RYLA (Rotary Youth Leadership Awards x 30 years), The Navy League (Past President and Current National Director), The March of Dimes (Past March for Babies Campaign Chair), The American Heart Association, The United Way (Former Loaned Executive), The Salvation Army & The USS Missouri. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Coalition for a Drug Free Hawaii and is a Past President, The Central YMCA (Board Member and Major Gifts & Campaign Chair) and is past Chair of the Salvation Army Family Treatment Services Advisory Board.

His Topic: Networking

Speaking at PWN on May 25, 2023

Read his full bio on his website: <https://www.thingsworthsaving.com/>