

Bio of Marcia Zina Mager

Marcia Zina Mager is an international author, speaker, award-winning poet and playwright, and performing artist. Her publishing credits include more than a dozen books translated into ten languages, including the European best-sellers, BELIEVING IN FAERIES: A Manual for Grown-ups, and THE HIDDEN KINGDOM: Discovering the Divine Presence in Nature. Her newest book, QUEST, an illustrated novel about a man healing his wounded heart, has garnered dozens of 5-star Amazon reviews.

Marcia is the founder of the original WRITE FROM THE HEART, a transformational seminar series taught all over North America. She's studied improvisation with Academy-award winning actor, Alan Arkin, and has appeared on local and national television and radio. In addition, she's the co-author and co-performer of the award-winning two-woman musical, MONEY TALKS: But What the Hell is it Saying that has performed for audiences in Hawaii and Colorado.

Marcia brings her out-of-the-box spontaneity and wild creativity to everything she's involved with. As a dynamic speaker and workshop leader, she's presented and performed for businesses, schools, churches, and organizations from New York to Honolulu. For the past six years she's been offering her unique expertise as THE WRITE COACH, inspiring men and women around the world to birth the book they've always dreamed about.
